

Holland & Knight

Quicker and slicker justice in arbitration?
Four speed debates starring arbitration practitioners from across the world

This event is in-person for UK-based attendees and online for those outside the UK.

WEDNESDAY,
16 OCTOBER
1530 GMT: 1630 CET:
2330 SGT: 1030 EST

RPC, Holland & Knight, Bär & Karrer and Twenty Essex invite you to a series of lively debates exploring how mechanisms within the arbitration process are being deployed in different jurisdictions to achieve faster resolution.

Join practitioners from Singapore, Switzerland, the UK and the US for a series of quickfire discussions looking at:

- multi-tier dispute resolution clauses: use of mediation and hybrid dispute resolution processes in various jurisdictions
- recognition of interim or partial awards and strategic implications/enforceability
- procedural measures to accelerate relief
- will parties opt for appellate rights?

Be prepared to have your say in this interactive session!
